Lillehammer 1

Lillehammer is a charming town at the entrance to the Gudbrandsdalen valley. With its 27,000 inhabitants and picturesque pedestrian street, it has a cosy village feel rarely found in urban settings. Storgata, lined with idyllic wooden town houses, provides the framework for a modern and friendly shopping experience and is an experience in its own right. Lillehammer was the host of the 1994 Winter Olympics, and there are several Olympic Arenas well worth a visit. It is a popular annual venue for both large and small events, such as the Nordic World Ski Championships, the Birkebeiner Races, and the Norwegian Festival of Literature. Numerous museums and cultural centres are also available, including Maihaugen, the Norwegian Olympic Museum, and Lillehammer Art Museum. These are only a few of the experiences on offer, and another attraction not to be missed is Skibladner - the world's oldest paddle steamer still in scheduled service.

Hafjell, Hunderfossen, Øyer 2

Wide range of adventure activities within a small radius: Hunderfossen Family Park is the country's very own fairytale adventure park, and with over 60 attractions it caters for every age group. Lilleputthammer Family Park is packed with exciting experiences for children under 9 years old. Hafjell Bike Park offers lift-assisted downhill biking for all skill levels. This is also the area where you find Lillehammer Olympic Bobsleigh and Luge Track, the Norwegian Road Museum, and Hafjell Golf. Furthermore, the Øyerfjellet mountain offers a spectacular scenery ideal for hiking, fishing, and biking.

Sjusjøen and Nordseter 5 7

Sjusjøen and Nordseter are the mountain areas closest to Lillehammer. Both are located a mere 20 km from the town centre, and are ideal for anyone interested in hiking and cycling. A network of way-marked trails and bicycle routes are available. Visit Natrudstilen, and you will also find a roller ski track with biathlon facilities.

Kvitfjell, Venabygdsfjellet, Ringebu 3 10 12

Kvitfjell is home to Norway's most spectacular alpine runs - the very same that were used for the 1994 Olympics - and is an annual venue for the World Cup downhill race. On the eastern side of Gudbrandsdalen are the breathtaking Venabygdsfjellet and Rondane - a stunning high-mountain experience by car as well as by foot. Rondane National Tourist Route offers spectacular views as you drive along and from its many vantage points ideal for a break. Ringebu is often referred to as Norway's smallest town, and its history as a commercial centre dates back to 1899. Here you will find a wide selection of speciality shops in charming surroundings.

Gålå, Rondablikk (Kvamsfjellet), Vinstra 6 11 13

Visit the central part of Gudbrandsdalen, and you will discover a spectacular mountain hiking terrain as well as a host of cultural experiences in an authentic setting. The town of Vinstra is the region's centre, and the highlight of the summer is the annual Peer Gynt Festival held at Gålå - in the World of Peer Gynt. On the eastern side of the valley is Rondablikk (Kvamsfjellet mountain), which is a gateway to Rondane National Park. This is home to the Furusjøen Rundt races (mountain biking, running), also known as the Adventure of Rondane. Just north of Vinstra, you will find one of the best white-water rafting rivers in Europe. GoRafting offers adventures for visitors of all ages.

Skeikampen, Espedalen (Gausdal) and Skåbu 4 8 9

Skeikampen, some 45 minutes by car from Lillehammer, is a destination ideal for cycling and hiking. It is located in the mountain area known as the World of Peer Gynt, where you also find Kvitfjell, Gålå, and Espedalen. Follow the Peer Gynt route, and you will reach the mountain plateau at approx. 1000 metres above sea level. The mountain destination Espedalen in Vestre Gausdal is another fantastic starting point for outdoor pursuits, whatever the season. This is also where you find Helvete Nature Park featuring Northern Europe's largest potholes. At Skåbu, just north of Espedalen, you can pick up Jotunheimvegen - a route leading directly to Jotunheimen National Park.

Langsua National Park

Langsua National Park can be found in the mountain between Gausdal and Valdres. It is surrounded by six nature reserves and four conservation areas with a rich flora and fauna. Langsua is a diverse and popular hiking area, and is easily accessible for most of the year. From Lillehammer and Gausdal, follow route 204 to the conservation areas by Kittilbu Utmarksmuseum. The museum is also a visitor centre for Langsua. Old, idyllic dairy farms and welcoming mountain lodges are scattered all around. The area has its own outdoor adventure app (TurApp).

In the footsteps of Peer Gynt

The beautiful and varied terrain on the western side of Gudbrandsdalen is where the 70 km long Peer Gynt Trail runs. This is a mountain area stretching from Gausdal and Skeikampen in the south and east to Skåbu and Espedalen in the north and west. Numerous hotels and mountain lodges along the way provide accommodation and meals.

In Espedalen, there are guided tours to the old nickel mines and the Helvete Potholes, and you can also enjoy paddling on lake Espedalsvannet. www.lillehammer.com/strandfjellstue

Rondane National Park, Venabygdsfjellet and Rondablikk

With the Norwegian mountains as a backdrop, the festival is a nine-day celebration with 35 events, concerts, exhibitions and lectures. The tales about Per have been told through generations, and these, together with the nature and culture in the valley, is what inspired Henrik Ibsen to write the dramatic poem.
